

Instead of further relaxing ownership rules of broadcasting companies, I would prefer to see them tightened back up to pre 1999 levels.

Allowing fewer companies to own more of the public's sources of information gives way too much power to those few companies.